

Integration Support Worker

Community Volunteer Connections is accepting applications for an Integration Support Worker to work directly with adults with developmental disabilities to maintain and enhance their presence and participation in the community as a volunteer.

You will provide one-to-one and group support to adults with developmental disabilities and behavioral challenges, formulating goals, action plans and strategies together with clients and their caregivers, to engage them in community-based volunteer activities in Coquitlam.

Working under the guidance and support of Co-Managers, the ideal candidate will have the capacity to assess client interests, develop opportunities for volunteer engagement, provide the necessary training to prepare them for volunteer activities, and support them while volunteering on work sites. Engaging with community organizations, you will employ creative solutions to engaging clients in volunteer roles and monitor their progress and performance.

Position requirements

- Demonstrated experience working with adults with developmental disabilities
- Ability to teach functional life skills in a community setting
- Demonstrated ability to work with adults with special needs, and their families
- Ability to maintain a client's safety in the community
- Criminal record check is a condition of employment
- Valid first aid required
- Valid driver's license with $2 million liability
- Evening and weekend availability

---

This is a permanent, part-time position at 21 hours/week, with work from home administrative duties and on-site supervisory responsibilities. Work hours are flexible. Depending on experience, the starting wage is 22.65/hour to 23.50/hr. There is a mileage allowance of $0.59/km while performing program duties.

Community Volunteer Connections is a not-for-profit organization working with volunteers, nonprofits, and agencies to facilitate volunteer engagement towards collective issues for the betterment of communities, cultures, and ecosystems.

Send your cover letter and resume to fkondylis@volunteerconnections.ca.

In the email subject heading, include your first and last name, with position title. Only applicants with relevant work experience will be contacted for an interview.